BOOKS AND COOKS

Stephanie Winkel, Family Child Care Provider

Cooking is a life skill that we can teach children. Even better, we can teach these cooking skills through literacy! The Books and Cooks workshop will provide information on connecting children's books with cooking, eating healthy foods, tips and tricks for cooking with children, and children-friendly recipes. Each participant will be given recipes that correspond with specific children's books.

CHILDHOOD LEAD POISONING PREVENTION TRAINING

Reghan Walsh and Jess Fournier, Public Health Educators

Come join us for a FUN LEARNING workshop. In the first hour we will share a presentation on preventing childhood lead poisoning. Learn about lead in paint, soil, water and other products, and how it can affect young children. During the second part of the workshop we will do a small group activity called the Storyboard Peer-Educator Exercise. So, what is a storyboard exercise? A "storyboard" is used by a film director to map out each frame of a film. The storyboard peer-educator exercise is a word and picture display that can be used to educate others, in this case their peers, about the dangers of lead poisoning and how it can be prevented. It's so much fun--you'll love it!

Lunch will be provided

*Mini Conference will be held at Child Care Resource and Referral, 1001 W. Kennedy Ave., Suite A, Kimberly, WI
